PRIVATE PRACTICE THERAPIST (signing bonus!)

Job Description:

We are so excited as we continue to grow our group and are looking for two licensed therapists to join our team. This position is to provide therapy in our Bannockburn location. We are especially interested in someone who has training in family therapy and/or couple's therapy. This is a unique opportunity for someone looking to grow as a couple's therapist while receiving direct supervision from a Certified Gottman Therapist. Currently, we have a waiting list for those seeking couple's therapy.

The ideal candidate(s) needs to be comfortable working with individuals struggling with relational difficulties, family conflicts, anxiety and/or depression, trauma, grief and loss. Having private practice experience, training in Attachment Theory, Emotionally Focused Therapy, Internal Family Systems, or Gottman Couples Therapy is a plus and will be eligible for a signing-on bonus.

Our mission at Ammirati Counseling is to create a collaborative environment that allows clinicians to do what they do with the support of a caring and dynamic team. It is our belief that when clinicians are feeling great, their clients get the best care possible.

As a therapist at Ammirati Counseling we hope you will:

- Be willing to perform on-site and teletherapy counseling sessions to clients
- Be detailed oriented and submit session notes, treatment plans, and other clinical paperwork in a timely manner in EHR
- Be able to effectively work in teams. Many of our couples are made up of individuals who are seeing one of the other therapists for individual counseling in the practice
- Be willing to work a minimum of 2-3 days a week, including at least one or two nights per week and/or one weekend day
- Be willing to attend group supervision and staff meetings
- Be enthusiastic about the profession, confident in the quality of service provided, independent, driven, collaborative and dedicated to being a lifelong learner
- Be willing to market to grow their referral base and recognition in the community
- Be willing to embrace and reflect practice values towards clients and other team members

About Ammirati Counseling and the opportunity:

- The compensation is competitive for the area based on caseload and licensure.
- Candidate will be employee status. This is a W-2 position.
- The group provides beautiful new offices, administrative support, (scheduling, billing and collection services), business cards, a profile on the website, malpractice insurance.
- We offer tuition reimbursement for continuing education and a stipend for supervision towards a LMFT, or LCSW.
- We offer Tuition Reimbursement.
- We offer Medical Benefits.
- We have a steady stream of referrals.
- There is a weekly individual case consultation with our Clinical Director and monthly group supervision.
- Taking time off and making a schedule that aligns with your life is a perk of private practice work. Clinicians can set a schedule that aligns with your life. The deal is -- the more you work, the more you make.
- We are committed to increasing access to mental health services and achieve this by being an in-network provider with major healthcare insurers. Our team will credential you with major insurers we work with ensuring it's easy for clients to schedule appointments with you.

Please include when applying:

- A Cover Letter - expressing why you are a good fit for this position and share your niche area of interest
- Resume/CV
- License – LPC, LSW, AMFT, LCPC, LCSW, LMFT, or a Clinical Psychologist
- Experience – Minimum of 2+ years of Post Graduate experience
